

TANGLE TARP

game instructions

GAME RULES

NUMBER OF PLAYERS: 2-4

- Players should start spread out on the board. Each player's feet placed on different colored adjacent circles.
- A person not playing should act as referee and be in charge of the spinner. They spin and announce the body part and color the arrow points to.
- Players can only move their hand or foot when it has been called out to be relocated. You can also lift a limb to allow someone to pass through, but must announce so before moving.
- If a color is called and no spaces are free, the referee will spin again. Repeat as needed.
- If two players attempt to land on the same space at the same time the referee must decide who got there first.

WINNING

- If a player at any point moves off their colored circle they lose, this includes falling.
- The last player left wins.
